#MOST-IMPORTANT-MATERIAL-EVER

If this wants to be a lucid dream, the following pages shall not be missing. I discovered the 'Seth Material' in winter after the first KlarTraum publication. In order to make space, some pages have been shortened from the already-so-called chapter #not-everything-must-in-the-book, you can find the 'original' content in LucidDream Audiobook 7 and first (e)Book edition.

This is a bestof of the 'Seth material' from thousands of pages spoken by a channeled personality with no physical form. In the 70's, Jane Roberts got dictated the content via trance, her husband recorded ... the content will always be most important and up-to-date. What she got transferred might as well be from me, while being connected to all swarm intelligence in deep-dmt-space. Thank you for giving these books. We are many.

The next pages contain a part of the bestof audiobooks that I produced about Seth. Recommended are: 'LucidDream - Nature of Personal Reality' and 'LucidDream - MOST IMPORTANT MATERIAL EVER' - from which the following quotes.

I consider this material to be the most important because it is consistent with what one can experience in the Shamanic realms of Ayahuasca / DMT and Salvia Divinorum - it builds on knowledge that can be experienced in the deepest parts of the inner self.

It also matches with scientific study about 'Language-and-DNA' as well as experiments with as plants, water and situations that react to your thoughts, see lectures in the source directory

(cite{language-dna-lectures})

Much of it captures experiences that I recognize and have experienced in 'years' of inner-walls-space-traveling ... 5 minutes in our reality can be years in hyperspaces and other realities where I was allowed to experience non-material existence and pure divine All-Being. Instead of trip reports, Seth gives us a glimpse of our psyche and reality as our later self would tell it.

Remember: Seth is not an outward character who has a weird name, and you don't know what to think about him ... it's a character that you have shaped and manifested - as well as the book you read - because this information will somehow reach humanity.

Books that are quoted: 'Nature of Personal Reality' 1985, 'Talks with Seth' 1979, 'The Seth-Material' 1986 by Jane Roberts ... comments by Kess in italic ... here the Seth-Quotes start.

You are used to thinking in single line thoughts - so you think of events that you know as complete things or actions - not realizing that what you perceive is but a fraction of their entire multidimensional existence.

In greater terms, it impossible to separate one physical event from a probable event for these are all dimensions of one action. The dimension of one action has many probable events.

There is simply no time as you think of it. Only a present in which all things occur.

Your imagination can be of great value, allowing you to open yourself to such courses to bring this into be.

There is no Karma, to be paid off as punishment, unless you believe there are crimes for which you must pay. In a simultaneous time, punishment makes no sense, the punishment as an event and the event for which you have been punished, exist at once. And since there is no past, present and future, you could just as well say, that the punishment came first.

In larger terms there is no cause and effect either, though these are root assumptions in your reality. In the moment of reflection, both causes and effects first appear.

#MOST-IMPORTANT-MATERIAL-EVER

Since all is simultaneous your present beliefs can alter your past ones - whether from this live or a previous one.

If you think in terms of a multidimensional self, then you realize that you have many more avenues open to expression and fulfillment than you have been using.

Your beliefs, thoughts and emotion are instantly materialized physically. Their earthly reality occurs simultaneously within their inception.

But in the world of time lapses between appear to occur. So you say one causes the other, and I use these terms to help you to understand, but all are at once. So are your multiple lives occurring at the immediate realization of your being in the natural extension of its many faceted abilities.

These multiple existences are simultaneous and open ended.

In your terms the conscious mind is growing toward a realization of the part it has to play in such a multidimensional reality. It is enough that you understand your part in this existence.

If you fully comprehend that you form what you think of as your current reality, all else will fall into place.

At once does not imply a finished state of perfection nor a cosmic situation in which all things have been done. For all things are still happening, you are still happening, but both present and future selves and your past self is still undergoing what you think is done.

Think of your thoughts as living electromagnetic cells differing from the physical cells in your body only in the nature of their materialization.

If all of your beliefs, not just your fortunate ones, were not materialized, you would never thoroughly understand on a physical level, that your ideas create reality and understand the power of your thought ... for you would not completely experience its physical results.
(We have to take responsibility for our thoughts.)

Like breaths, so your lives go in and out of you.

You and yet not you and a portion of you while letting them all go, remembers them
and knows their journey.

So the lives you have lived
are not you,
while they are of you.

Close your eyes. Think of your breaths as lives, and you the entity through which they have passed and are passing. Then you will feel your state of grace and all artificial guilts will be meaningless.

Think of the greater you, call it the entity if you want to, as forming a psychic structure, quite as real as your physical one, but composed of many selves.

As each cell of your body has its position within your corporeal space and boundary, so each self within the entity is aware of its own time and dimension of activity. So the entity or greater psychic structure of which you are part, is aware of a much larger dimension of activity than you are.

In this regard now and for the sake of our analogy, think of the life of your self as one message, leaping across the nerve cells of a multidimensional structure - again as real as your body and consider it also a greater moment of reflection on the part of such a many-sided personality.

You own present identity contains the knowledge and memory of all those simultaneous existences, f.e. I (Seth) am dead for other I's who carry me as a memory.

Consciously because of your time concepts, you will interpret those simultaneous lives in reincarnational terms - one seemingly before the other - yet they are all happening simultaneously.

#MOST-IMPORTANT-MATERIAL-EVER

The entity has its existence in multitudinous dimensions. Its souls free to travel within boundaries that would seem infinite to you. Souls make up the live of the entity in those terms, yet the entity is more then the soul is.

Know that later, you will still operate through another form but that the body in the material world are your present modes of expression.

What you think of as the self, dies and is reborn constantly as the cells of your body do. What you call the ego is a portion of the inner identity that rises to face the world of physical existence.

The ego can be compared to the bark of a tree. The bark is flexible, vibrant and grows with the growth beneath. Its a trees contact with the outer world, the trees interpreter and to some degree the trees companion. So should mans ego be.

All of this may seem to have little to do with your personal reality yet your daily experience is as connected with your self or entity as it is with the cells of your physical form. You are a part of your soul, the entity or greater self is composed of souls.

Your understanding and desire are so important. the processes initiated are beyond your normal awareness. They occur automatically with your intent, if you do not block them through fear, doubt or opposing believes.

Here is a exercise. Imagine yourself as a portion of an invisible universe, but one in which all the stars and planets are conscious and full of indescribable energy. You are aware of this.

Think of the universe as having the form of a body. If you want to, visualize its outline brilliant against the sky. The suns and planets are your cells, each filled with energy and power, but awaiting your direction.

The whole universe is your body! Then see this image exploding into your own consciousness which is unbelievable bright. Realize that it is a portion of a far greater multidimensional structure spread out in an even richer dimension.

Feel the entity sending you energy as you send energy to your cells. Let it fill your being and then direct it physically any place within your body what you choose.

(This is what you can experience so 1:1 in Ayahuasca, where it is no theory, but what you deep experience to be a cell in a body and at the same time the organism / swarm that fillles all consciousness)

Note Kess: ... all this what is told in Seth material and also lots of other books is in the inner walls of an deep Ayahuasca experience. Yet you have to 'install' it not only once but at least 4-5 times until it can show you what it is about. After you installed it, you can trigger dmt bodys-own much more easy, in dreams and in daily telepathic expericenes

it is literally like in Matrix - it is a plug in cable that connects all your neuronal structure and your cells to the higher entity ... you will be overwhelmed and filled with cosmic power and with every pure essence of love ... because what Ayahuasca basically is, is pure love

You are immediately presented with choices. You can not longer see yourself as a victim of circumstances. You create not only the body, but its entire experience, the context in which it takes place (!!!)

(So you create any physical world and material and everything just springs out of you. There is nothing external that you were just born into. You, your higher self, gives birth to all this. All time, all events, all matter, all trees, all animals, all people as well - they are cells inside of you.)

Freaky – but exactly this means: all-is-one :)

What do you think of yourself, your daily life, your body, your relationship with others? Ask yourself these questions. Write down the answers or speak them into a recorder but in one way or another objectify them.

(Really a important step, take time to do this. Once you started to realize your patterns of beliefs, you get aware of even more fine-structured beliefs that are set on different levels in your daily live.)

Even the intent to know yourself, to face the reality of your experience can be of great benefit, generating emotions that will provide you and energy an impetus to begin - your inner sense of balance. It is not a matter of rising above your nature, but evolving from the full understanding of it.

Impulses poses a far different reality than physicists or biologists suppose. As you think now, the past is still occurring. Past events continue. Consciously you only experience portions of events with your corporeal structure, yet the structure itself records them.

The affirmation involved is one of transcendence in which for a time a person affirms his reality in flesh and at the same time states its independence from it. And realize that both of these conditions exist simultaneously.

You are independent of flesh and matter. Everything is all one.

When you grow aware of this, then you are confronted with making conscious decisions and choises.

(You get into these states via Meditation, via Dream, via DMT, via Psylocybin, that is similar to DMT / acting DMT-like ... the most direkt way is Ayahuasca)

The birth of imagination initiated the largest possibilities and at the same time put great strain upon the biological creature whose entire corporeal structure would now react not only to present objective situations but imaginative ones.

Because you have free will you have the responsibility and the gift, the joy and the necessity of working with your beliefs and of choosing your personal reality as you desire.

there is within the rich makeup of your being endless variety of what you may call probable selves. In one reality or another, these will all be experienced. in your present existence however you will utilize only those psychological characteristics that you believe you possess.

One of the biggest quotes:

We are IN God.

We were never externalized.

Everything we imagine and know is inside.

There is no outside.

The overall private experience that you perceive forms your world, your experience. But which world do you inhabit?

For if you alter your beliefs and therefore your private sensations of reality, then that world, seemingly only one would also change.

You go through transformations of belief all the time and your perception of the world is different. So you seem to be no longer the person that you were. You`re quite correct, you are not the person that you were. Your world has changed and not just symbolically.

#MOST-IMPORTANT-MATERIAL-EVER

The past does have its own past, present and future.

This is really multi freaky, it remembers me so much of what happens, when you open up and go into Salvia Divinorum. You see all this parallel, past, present and futures - in one moment you are all of these events at the same time.

In a conscious Salvia experience lies the experience of ego death – you are getting one with all ... you can look into our reality like through a window or see it behind gates and landscapes of other realities ... you are not only the items or other lifeforms, you are also the concepts of other realities – this can never be caught by words

... and it is out / above our time – this is how you get a deep feeling for what also Seth tells. And it was 50 years ago that it was recorded, yet it will always be the most current topic of all.

From a given past event you will only materialize a particular future but the event itself continues and possesses a dimensionality of its own, or rather a multidimensionality, that you also possess...

You can dip into cellular memory for example. Using memory you follow but one recognized sequence of remembered events backwards.

There are elements in your past, that are as unpredictable however as the elements in your future now appear to be.

There is creativity in your past waiting for you - even as there is in your future.

But to utilize such experiences you must learn to alter your beliefs and to some degree escape from the particular kind of limited conscious focus that you habitually use.

Take for example the spontaneous disappearance of disease. Certain alterations are made that affect cellular memory, genetic codes, or neuronal patterns in the past.

A sudden or intense belief in health can indeed reverse a disease. But in a very practical way, it is a reversal in terms of time. New memories are inserted in place of the old ones, as far as cells are concerned.

You have to consciously let this happen. So get rid of any memory about any disease. This kind of therapy happens quite frequently on a spontaneous basis, when people rid themselves of diseases they do not even know they possess.

A new belief in the present can cause changes in the past on a neuronal level. You must understand that basically time is simultaneous.

A strong belief in a particular ability, generated in the present, will reach into the past and effect whatever changes would have to occur there, in order to now make the ability apparent.

Accelerated learning takes place when under hypnosis or otherwise a present individual is convinced that he or she is f.e. a linguist or a painter. The present belief activates latent abilities within each person.

The biological structure as it existed in the past is therefore affected. Experiences are built into the organism that it did not have before in your terms.

The present is your point of action, focus and power.

From that point you form both your future and your past.

Realizing this you will understand that you are not at the mercy of a past over which you have no control.

#Expansion-SETH      #MOST-IMPORTANT-MATERIAL-EVER

You may say: I was born in a house in a certain street in a certain town and no present belief to the contrary will change that fact. If in the present one past event can be altered within your neuronal structure however, then basically no event is save from such a change.

So he supposes that you could even change where you have been born - because there already were multiple realities where your mother could have given birth. This was not up to now into our focus but it comes more and more - why this life is the transformative one.

You really have to youtube / google '#Mandela Effect' and watch some videos, it is arbitrary. They are all telling the same and they are using lots of proofs that are irrelevant in the end but you have to spend this time to realize that we are already living in a world where all history is not one line but there are many proofs for different lines how history went, that can be found. Because its up to the observer.

We are the observer that is defining what he wants to measure and accordingly the expirement adapts / materialises as realities - like in quantum physics, where a particle / pulse simultaneously takes all pathes that are possible on it's way from A to B. Schrödingers Cat is not an experiment, but is happening all the time.

Mental associations are living things. They are formations of energy assembled into invisible structures. Thoughts thrive on association. So realize that your thoughts have a imprint of self-protection.

Take a higher seat in the cinema of your life and to see that your thoughts are the ones that created also the proofs for your thoughts, that you're caused to think they are true and real.

But it was only the thought that protected itself - like when you say 'I always said it' ... but when you change the belief system behind then you find the proofs for your new reality.

So what do you paint in your life with your world line? What do you create with your life, what effect do you create that has a effect to later and former and ... like sprouting seeds and flowering them.

The past is seldom what you remember it to be, for you have already rearranged it from the instant of any given event. The past is being constantly recreated by each individual as attitudes and accusations change. This is an actual recreation, not an symbolic one.

Severe neurosis is often caused precisely, because an individual has not changed its past. An individuals future actions are not dependent upon a concrete finished past - for such a past never existed.

The realization of a higher entity, is so helpful to see you functioning like a cell, like a organ in your body, that does not know about the reality you perceive. A cell in your body would say: 'wow, really crass' if it'd percive what you percive ...

*This is how you react when you know, what life means for your higher entity ... you can switch into this perception, it is like the cell would be able to switch into your experience for a while ... you can experience, your live as a cellular structure and it has so many cells and fractals clustering together to one big artwork of expression and creativity and love and intensity and joy.

#Expansion-SETH

#MOST-IMPORTANT-MATERIAL-EVER

So the entity in its own way possesses what you can think of as future neuronal structures. You form your corner of the universe which is itself a part of another one. Within this, the actions and beliefs of one, affect all.

In your mind see those probable abilities or events taking place ... as you do the intensity of your desire brings them into your experience.

So there is nothing that is not possible. Imagine that, you can run out and shout Juhuu...

It is the best thing about life, just did not yet realize ... really, this is the stuff that is sacred, where the only reaction that you can bring, is to cry, deeply touched. At least in Ayahuasca you will understand this.

There are no boundaries set about the self.

There are literally many other probable you's. You can draw upon their energy and experience for you are all intimately connected.

Realize that you are indeed are a probable you. Your experience is the result of beliefs. Your neuronal structure necessitates a certain focus, so that other experiences counter to your conscious assumptions, remain probable or latent (not yet experienced with your senses). Alter your beliefs and any probable self can be actualized.

What you must understand is this: Each of the events in your life, was one probable. From a given field of action then, you choose those happenings that will be physically materialized.

You can change the picture of your life at any time, if you realize, that it is simply the one portrait of yourself, that you have created, from an unlimited amount of probable ones. The abilities, strength and variants that you may want to actualize, are already there, in your terms, and at your disposal.

Your present convictions will act like a magnet, activating all those past issues, happy or sad. Your present is at the point where flesh and matter meet with the spirit. Therefore the present is your point of power in your current life as you think of it.

Sit with your eyes wide open, looking about you and realize that this moment represents the point of your power through which you can affect both past and future events.

If you learn to get hold of this feeling of power now you can use it most effectively to alter your life situation in whatever you choose.

The shutting out of superfluous data and the narrowing in of focus are the two most important ingredients. (That is why you have to shut off your outer senses - don't see, don't hear, don't whatever ... then you can connect to this higher dimensional Reality-Creation. )

Relaxation can help simply because the body messages are also quieted. And the mind not concerned with them.

Hypnosis is merely a state of concentrated attention in which you focus upon beliefs. The only prerequisite is an intense concentration upon specific incoming data, to the exclusion of everything else. Therefore the orders given are clear out - to the point, no conflicting information is received, no cross messages.

First of all, you must realize, that you are the Hypnotist.

#MOST-IMPORTANT-MATERIAL-EVER

Here a point of power exercise. A correctly utilized 5 minute period of time, can be of great benefit. In this period concentrate upon the fact, that the point of power is now.

Feel and dwell upon the certainty, that your emotional, spiritual and psychic abilities are focused though the flesh and for 5 minutes only direct all your attention toward what you want. Use visualization or verbal thought - whatever comes most naturally to you. But for that period do not concentrate upon any lacks, just upon your desire.

Use all your energy and attention, then forget about it. Do not check to see how well it is working. Simply make sure that in that period your attentions are clear. Then in one way or another, according to your individual situation make on physical gesture or act that is in line with your belief or desire.

Behave physically then, at least once a day, in a way that shows you, you have faith in what you are doing. And act as if you were in complete abundance. The belief in the present, reinforced for 5 minutes, plus such a physical action will sometimes bring literally awesome results.

Don't think of the future, but only of the present. If you are lonely belief that you are filled with the feeling of companionship instead.

'Your body dwells in the Earth
- as you dwell in your body.'

Realize that you're exerting your initiative to imagine such situations. Use visual data, or words - whatever is most natural to you. Not more than 10 minutes is required. If you do this faithfully within a month you will find the new conditions materializing in your experience.

Quite without any inductions you have hypnotized yourself into all the beliefs that you have. Your Reality is the result of a hallucination, if by this you mean that it is the only picture shown by your senses.

The entity is the basic self, immortal, non-physical. It communicates on a energy level with other entities and has an almost inexhaustible supply of energy at its command.

The intensity of a thought or a image largely determines the immediacy of its physical materialization. Its the intensity. There is no object about you that you have not created. There is nothing about your own physical image, that you have not made.

Watch the pictures that you paint with your imagination. Your environment and the conditions of your life at any given time are the direct result of your own inner expectations.

If you don't like the picture of your life, you just change it like a painter its colors.

You create your own difficulties. This is true for each individual. The inner psychological state is projected outward gaining physical reality - and this regardless to the nature of the psychological state.

The rules apply to everyone. You can use them for your own benefit and change your own conditions, once you realize what they are.

Slide imaginatively into a world where you will not perform the next small action you will perform in this world. Cough, smile, sneeze - in some other actuality your actions are non-actions and your non-acts are realized.

Portions of the self perceive physical reality in an entirely different fashion - free of the tyranny of objects and physical form. Here your experience concepts directly without the needs for symbols.

Physical life is not the rule. Consciousness is the force behind matter and it forms many other realities besides the physical one. The source and power of your present consciousness has never been physical, and where i am many are not even aware that such physical realities exist.

Before you can be allowed into systems of reality that are more extensive and open, you must first learn to handle energy and see through physical materialization the concrete result of thought and emotion. When you leave the physical system after reincarnations, you have learned the lesson and you are literally no longer a member of the human race, for you elect to leave it.

Therefore the lesson must be taught and learned well. The responsibility for creation must be clearly understood. It is not that you must be taught not to destroy - for destruction does not actually exist. It is that you must be trained to create responsibility - the control, the compassion that is finally aroused - and that final and last lesson: The positive desire for creativity and love over destruction and hatred. When this is learned, the cycle is finished. (So mighty words - after you installed this material, you can say: that's it)

Humanity dreams the same dream at once. And you have your mass world. The whole construction is like an educational play, in which you are the producers as well as the actors.

There is a play within a play within a play. There is no end to the 'within' of things. The dreamer dreams and the dreamer within the dream dreams, but the dreams are not meaningless and the actions within them are significant.

You're independent of your thoughts and emotions. You use your thoughts and emotions in mental composition. Learn to trust your own spontaneous nature. Life in faith, that your purpose is and will be fulfilled.

Through our dreams we change physical reality and our physical daily experience alters our dream experience. The dream universe possesses concepts, which someday will completely transform the physical world. (!!!)

There is a part of you that is not locked within physical reality. And that part of you knows, there is only an eternal now. From within this framework you will see, that the physical time is as dreamlike as you once thought inner time was.

You will discover your whole self, peeping inward and outward at the same time and find that all time is one time and all divisions are illusions.

#MOST-IMPORTANT-MATERIAL-EVER

In more advanced systems, thought and emotions are automatically and immediately translated into action. Into whatever approximation of matter there exists.

You are HE (=God) manifesting as you.

People who can ignore the physical evidence of wars and purposely think thoughts of peace will triumph.

It is very important, that you understand the true innocence of all feelings, for each feeling, for each of them if left and followed will lead you back to the reality of love. There is nothing within yourself to fear. (f.e.a.r.= feel excited and ready)

By accepting yourself and joyfully being what you are, you fulfill your own abilities and your simple presence can make others happy.

Within any given 5 minutes of clock of time, f.e., you may find an hour of rest which is independent of clock time.

Time and space are both a part of something else. They are merely the camouflage patterns by which you perceive reality.

Your ages are probable.

The only constant of this multidimensional life is: Spontaneity.

True motion has nothing to do with space - the only real motion is that of the traveling consciousness.

#next-level

Seth says we are evolving to the same form of life that he represents - free of physical form, but possible to take any physical form and create a desired reality around.

'For example, we don't live in cities and there are no days and nights as you know them. But sometimes I love to take a physical form and sit in the study-room of the 14th-century to look into the landscape' (from 'Talks with Seth', Jane Roberts)

Seth says he is surrounded by beings who are at the same level of development as he is, no one is unconscious anymore - this is what seems also to get real to us, after the 'global awakening'.

Here is a cross-connection to the pioneering work of Michael and Sandra Harner, who are now over 80. The two brought through numerous visits and reports the knowledge of hundreds of indigenous tribes about shamanism in the West. They provided deep insights and scientific understanding about the traditions and importance of psychedelics and entheogens (= plants that carry God inside).

There are over 400 tribes that practice shamanism, some also use only drum sounds to connect with the higher dimensions,

Harner writes: 'After having personally practiced shamanism, shamanic healing and journeying for more than half a century, I can say that there is nothing I have encountered in reports of the spiritual experiences of saints, prophets, psychedelic drug experiences, near death survivors, avatars and other mystics that is not commonly experienced when following classic journey methods using a drum'

Harner speaks in his reports of entire Societies of Shamans he encountered - where practicing Shamanism is part of everyone's experience. Worth seeing is the documentary about the life work of the two: 'The Way Of The Shaman', youtube, as well as the book of the same name and his work, 'Cave and the Cosmos', M. Harner, 2018.

Michael and Sandra Harner have founded the world's largest library on shamanic studies - for the conservation and teaching of shamanic knowledge, for the welfare of the planet and its inhabitants, see shamanism.org

this fits well to the realization of reality creation, the author has learned from Hawaiian Shamanism, he writes in 'Philosophy of Life and Introduction to the Practice of Urban Shaman Craft' in his book 'The City Shaman':

'The world is what you think it is

The shaman not only recognizes the effects of attitudes, expectations, telepathy and beliefs on the experience, but also represents the extraordinarily subtle idea that life is a dream - yes, that we are indeed dreaming our lives into existence. This does not mean that life is an illusion.

Rather, it says: dreams are real, reality is a dream. The reality you are experiencing right now is just one of many dreams.

If this life is a dream and if we can awaken in it completely, then we can change the dream by transforming our dreams.'

'In many shamanic traditions, the idea that everything is interconnected is illustrated by the symbol of a spider web.

The shaman is the spider who is in a lucid dream and weaves the net (of life) from fine threads, that come from the inside.

The net not only stands for the dreaming of life, but also its various interconnectedness. Every part of life is connected with every other part and as for the one, it affects all others in varying degrees.'

I am convinced that the key to a so-called world formula, is buried in the world of psychedelics, preferably in DMT or Salvia. However, this is not to be understood as a mathematical formula, but as a non-verbal insight into the origin of all being.

All Is One - that's the key insight I've got on Salvia, N, N-DMT as well as 5-MeO-DMT on every trip.' (kk84)

'I did not know Seth before, but that's really crazy, most of the quotes you mentioned about Seth might come from a trip report, if you did not know what it was, it could be a typical Salvia / DMT trip.

And exactly in these findings, in my opinion, the world formula is to be found. We have never been so close to the world formula as we are right now. Exactly at the point where empirical science no longer works, this puzzle piece of the completely new world view fits so perfectly.

We may be one of the first pioneers to incarnate with the intention of finally waking up, just as one wakes up on a Salviatrip. This is so crass, whenever the effect of Salvia hits me, I know that life was just a dream, or a kind of holodeck simulation like Star Trek, which then flares more and more through due to this replicator.'
